Grunge is not dead!

Put on your flannel shirt and come rock out on this 30th Anniversary special screening of Cameron Crowe's SINGLES, with MONDO, on 20th September!

GET TICKETS

The struggles of single life are made much, much easier when you can have a night out at a local club and see live performances of Alice in Chains, Soundgarden, Pearl Jam, and many other artists from Seattle's grunge scene.

That's basically the setting for Cameron Crowe's SINGLES, released in 1992, starring Bridget Fonda, Campbell Scott, Kyra Sedgwick, Matt Dillon and with the special appearances of many of the grunge-era musicians, including Eddie Vedder and the late Chris Cornell.

The story follows the lives of a group of young people living in the same apartment building, experiencing relationship and professional hurdles. The film feels like a time capsule to everyone who loves the 90s, its flannel shirts, parra boots, hats and noisy and muddy music.

So, of course SINGLES presents us with a memorable soundtrack! In fact, it was released three months before the film even opened. An instant hit, the soundtrack eventually ended-up selling over two million copies.

Did we hear you say you want one too?

Well... To celebrate the 30th Anniversary of SINGLES, the PCC teamed up with Mondo for a unique screening this September.

We'll have a very limited amount of the Orange vinyl Mondo exclusive soundtrack, which is exclusively available at this screening in the UK (no copies are going to retailers).

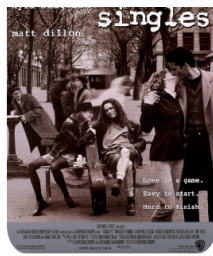

It's a double LP complete with a 20-page replica of a promo-only Japanese fanzine that was available upon its initial release in '93!

The record will only be available for ticket-holders to this special screening and is limited to one copy per customer – be aware that it's first come, first served! Price TBC soon.

So get your tickets now to celebrate SINGLES with the PCC and Mondo, on the 20th of September.

Cameron Crowe's SINGLES w/ Mondo Tue 20th September 8:30pm

In Seattle during the era of grunge music, the lives and relationships of a group of young people, all living in the same apartment building, go through a period of flux. Among them are waitress and aspiring architect Janet (Bridget Fonda), who finds herself obsessed with bad boy musician Cliff (Matt Dillon); Linda (Kyra Sedgwick), an emotionally fragile environmentalist on the look-out for love; and Steve (Campbell Scott), a quintessential nice guy who studies traffic patterns.

YOU MAY ALSO BE INTERESTED IN

Still on the 90s vibe, let's remember that, in 1994, a 24-year-old Kevin Smith would kickstart his filmmaking career by crafting a story around him and his friends and the convenience store he worked at. Nearly 30 years later, Clerks is regarded as one of the greatest American independent films of all-time.

So it's time to bring you 2022's CLERKS III, following a now late 40s Dante and Randal, still working at the Quick Stop after becoming the owners at the end of Clerks II. Get tickets now!

Kevin Smith's
CLERKS III
Showing from 16th SEPTEMBER*

Following a massive heart attack, Randal enlists his friends and fellow clerks Dante, Elias, Jay, and Silent Bob to make a movie immortalizing his life at the convenience store that started it all.

*Please Note: Kevin Smith will not be in attendance for these performances.
